

LARGE MILLION DOLLAR PLANT MAY BE ERECTED BY WEST PENN AT SPEERS

Location Said to be on Property of Company at That Place.

TO START ERECTION SOON

It has been authentically rumored that the large million-dollar generating plant which the West Penn Electric company proposed to build in the Monongahela valley during the coming year, will be placed at Speers, where the company holds some ground. The only plants of the company are now at Connelville, and these were found not large enough for all purposes, so it was planned to erect a new one, and place it in the valley. The West Penn company furnishes the lighting for many of the towns of Western Pennsylvania, besides the power for some of the trolley lines.

Announcement was made during last fall of the company's intention to erect a large plant, to be the largest and most expensive of any owned. It was given out that this was to be placed somewhere in the valley, and the towns immediately began fighting for preference. The matter was almost forgotten, but now it seems that the company has been preparing to establish the plant at Speers.

Monongahela and Monessen were both after it strong, and Elizabeth was fighting to secure the location of the plant there. Charleroi was seemingly the most suitable. The people of Speers made no effort whatever for the preference, although it was a well known fact that the company had ground at that place, where there was a former plant.

If the rumors are true it is probable that the company will have the plant at Speers. When put in operation it will prove a valuable industry, and a number of men will be employed in it, all of them skilled mechanics. The location at Speers would be a boon not only for that borough, but also for Charleroi.

Queen Contest

The threatening rain will in no way interfere with the Block carnival this evening. Last night a large crowd enjoyed themselves on Washington avenue among other things listening to the band concert. The special attraction tonight is the baby show. If it should rain, all the attractions of the carnival will hold forth in the Sunday school rooms of Christ Lutheran church, which is especially adapted for just such an occasion. There is one new contestant for the queen of the carnival today. The following is the vote as taken at noon:

Miss Mercy Myford.....	331
Miss Rosa Vetter.....	106
Miss Myrtle Dunmire.....	190
Miss Lenora Mink.....	95
Miss Jennie MacNicol.....	25
Miss Agnes Allen.....	90
Miss Evelyn Hays.....	58

Eagles Hold Banquet

Monongahela Aerie, No. 532, Fraternal Order of Eagles, had the honor of entertaining the first grand officer of the order when Deputy Grand Worthy President W. H. Schrah paid the aerie a fraternal visit Wednesday night. After the regular session a banquet was given at the Hotel Main at which 52 were present.

The voting for the Queen of the Carnival which begins tonight on Washington avenue Sixth street reveals three new aspirants. The following is the vote as taken at noon today:

TIDY SUM REALIZED
FOR THE PLAYGROUNDS

The amount realized in the benefit held Wednesday for the playgrounds, as near as can be told at the present time, was $79.65. This sum will be turned over to the Playgrounds Auxiliary and will be used for their betterment.

The benefit consisted of a ball game between the Elks and Eagles teams in which the former came out victor, and several races.

LOWER COURT IS SUSTAINED

Superior Court Affirms Judgments in Cases Tried Before McIlvaine.

The Superior Court, sitting in Philadelphia has handed down opinions in two Washington county cases, viz: Commonwealth vs. George Hecirronic, and Gallagher vs. Pittsburg Underwriters. Judgement of the lower court is affirmed in both cases.

At the February term Hecirronic an agent for a Pittsburg wholesale liquor house at Marianna, was convicted on a charge of selling liquor without license and was sentenced to pay costs of prosecution, fine of $500 and undergo imprisonment in the workhouse for a period of five months. Underwood and Meloy, counsel for the defendant, moved for a new trial, which was refused by Judge J. A. McIlvaine. The claim was set up that Hecirronic was not the owner of the liquor house.

An appeal was taken and bond given for the defendant in the sum of $1,000. The court directed that the appeal should act as a supersedeas, and defendant released from the custody of the sheriff to await the action of the Superior Court. Unless the case is carried higher, which is not likely, Hecirronic will have to give himself up to the sheriff, and go to the workhouse to begin his sentence.

The suit of Gallagher vs. Pittsburg Underwriters was an action to collect $350 insurance on the stock and fixtures of a store at Twilight which were destroyed by fire on the night of January 27, 1907. Joined with the defendant association in the suit, were several insurance companies. The defense denied that the plaintiff had as much goods as reported and in representations made in securing the policies and they aver if they are liable, not for the amount claimed. The suit was tried before Judge J. A. McIlvaine at the November term, 1908, and the jury found for the plaintiff for the full amount of the claim. The jury found the value of the goods that were destroyed to be $4,500 and the fixtures $500. Following this verdict other verdicts were taken by agreement in the other cases, upon the condition that if the one case was appealed and affirmed that the other verdicts would stand and if reversed, the judgement in the other case would be reversed.

MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION IN SPECIAL MEETING
DECIDES TO ASSIST IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE THE CARRYING OUT OF PLANS FOR THE VALLEY FAIR

The Charleroi Merchants Association will co-operate with the Charleroi Athletic Association in holding a Valley Fair here during the second week of September. Action was taken to this effect at a meeting of the association held last night. John H. Bowers, president of the association, and W. C. Clark were appointed member of the executive committee to act with a similar one from the Athletic Association to make all arrangements for the affair, and see to carrying them out.

The intentions of the Athletic Association for holding a valley fair was not understood by many of the merchants of the town, some of whom were strenuously opposing the idea. The meeting last night was called for the purpose of explanation, and for a vote on whether it would be favored or not. The merchants decided to assist in any way possible. The plans for the fair are: not for a carnival, but rather of the nature of an Old Home Week, such as was held at Monongahela last year. Charleroi is too young for an Old Home Week, and the Valley Fair will take its place.

Won't Play If He Will Not Occupy Some Other Position.

The ball game between the Republicans and Democrats of the House will be played at Washington, D. C., this afternoon, with an admission fee, the proceeds to go to the children's playgrounds. John K. Tener of Charleroi, captain of the Republican team, will not pitch but play shortstop, the opposing team protesting against an ex-professional going into the box against them.

Longworth, Burke and Veerland have been appointed a committee to secure the attendance of President Taft, Secretary Knox and other high officials. Vice President Sherman is to umpire. Gaines of West Virginia and Burke of Pennsylvania constitute the National League umpires.

CAMELITES BEST
PRESBYTERIANS

The baseball bunch from the Campbellite meeting place won over the nine from the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church last evening in the church league game. The final score was 7 to 1.

The Christians played a good game behind McGowan, who twirled well. The Washington Avenues were able to score only in the fifth inning. Stroud hit out for a base. He proceeded to steal second, and came trotting home when McGowan threw over Vernon's head at first, on Hess' attempted single.

The Christians scored four in the first inning. Furnier got a walk, Cratty struck out. Jolliffe got a base and Morris hit for two, scoring both. Hess walked Vernon, and Van Voorhis was safe on an error of the second baseman. McGowan was safe on an error of the third baseman, this allowing Van Voorhis to score. In the third Jolliffe accepted a fielder's choice, and was safe. Morris struck out and Vernon hit for two bags, bringing Jolly in. Two more in the seventh brought the score up to the total. Allshouse singled, followed by Furnier who duplicated the performance. On an error of Kiefer's Cratty was safe and Allshouse scored. Furnier worked his way around when a throw was made to catch Cratty at second. The score:

PRESIDENT LEWIS
INTERFERES AND CALLS OFF STRIKE

Miners of Pittsburg Coal Co., Will Not Quit Work as Anticipated

By declining to treat further with District President Francis Feehan of the National union and demanding that National President T. L. Lewis take charge of peace negotiations, the Pittsburg Coal company succeeded in getting the strike order issued by President Feehan called off. The strike went into effect yesterday, and as a result 15,000 out of the 18,000 miners employed by the company were out. All returned to work today, pending a settlement.

The strike order issued by President Feehan for alleged violations of the scale agreement on the part of the Pittsburg Coal company, was not to have the sanction of the National Board and President Lewis issued an order suspending the strike until further negotiations for a settlement. Consequently the men returned to work today. This conflict between the district president and the National president has caused some feeling among the former's friends. District President Feehan acquiesced in the order, but his board issues a set of resolutions, in which President Lewis was severely arraigned for interfering with the district order.

VALVE BREAKS AND AMMONIA LEAKS OUT

Considerable Damage Done at Ice Plant of George Moody.

A broken valve at the ice plant of J. W. Moody, on Crest avenue caused considerable damage yesterday afternoon. The damage was from the leakage of ammonia from the tank. The valve broke at about 4 o'clock, with a noise like that of an explosion. Then the ammonia began to flow out. The man in charge of the plant at the time was unable to stop the flow from the pipes and it was necessary to send for an electrician to turn off the power. By the time the machinery had been brought to a standstill, all the liquid had leaked out.

It was impossible to remain within the vicinity of the ice plant for an hour, owing to the fumes arising from the ammonia, and three hours before any one could go near the ammonia tank.

Mr. Moody sent to Pittsburg for more ammonia, and at noon today had the plant in operation.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Claimed Railway Company Unlawfully Trespassed on Property.

B. B. Lytle, guardian of Harold Dill and Helen Dill, minors and Mrs. Sarah L. Dill Douglass entered an action at Washington against the Pittsburg and Charleroi Street Railway Co., to recover $2,000 for damages to property of the plaintiffs in the borough of Finleyville. In the statement of claim it is set forth that the plaintiffs are heirs of George W. Dill, who died November 5, 1898, in estate, seized of a lot of ground in Finleyville, fronting 106 feet on Washington avenue and extending back 108 feet to Marion avenue.

Balloon Has Free Tickets.

In order to advertise the grand outing of the Knights of Malta to Cascade Park next Tuesday the local lodge has adopted a novel scheme. Tomorrow night at 8:30 several balloons will be sent up from the corner of Fifth street, to which free tickets will be attached. These can be used by the finders after the balloons descend. The excursion will be held over the P. and L. E. road, a special train leaving early Tuesday morning for Cascade Park, near New Castle. The fare for the round trip from Belle Vernon and nearby stations is $1.05 for adults and 50 cents for children. 2862tp

Officials Leave, but Will Tender Their Report in Near Future.

SETTLEMENT OF STRIKE

The test which National officials of the miners' union have been making at the Charleroi Coal Works, was finished up yesterday and all who have been here to assist in the test left. The test was for the purpose of ascertaining the difference in cost between the use of black powder and carbonite. During the month there were different National officials here, but Messrs. McKay and Roswell were the last to leave. Samuel Haggy of the Dupont Powder company was also here for 26 days assisting in the test.

It was decided some time ago that black powder will not be used in the Charleroi Coal mines as an explosive. This was following a strike of the miners employed at this place over the use of other explosives than black powder. Carbonite, which it was proposed to use, is more costly and harder to handle and the miners wanted to be reimbursed for extra expense. This was the case of the strike.

At the settlement of the affair the mine superintendent, Jesse K. Johnson, agreed to allow a test to be made towards establishing the difference in price of the two explosives, to be governed in his future action by the report.

The report will be made at once, but the result will probably not be known to the public until some time to come.

BIG EXPENDITURES

Pittsburg Schools Cost District $2,696,207 for Maintenance.

There are 1,388 schools in the Pittsburg school district, employing 89 male and 1,299 female teachers. The average salary of the male teachers is $200 a month and of the female teachers $85 a month.

The schools enroll 56,651 pupils, 28,448 of whom are boys and 28,203 girls, with an average daily attendance of 44,932, a percentage of .79. The cost of each pupil per month is $2.63. The total amount of money levied for the year was $2,118,941.86.

The financial statement shows receipts of $4,098,367.50 of which $268,720.82 was from State appropriation, $1,157,649.66 balance from last year, $2,118,941.86 from school tax, $420,434.74 from loans and $133,070.40 from sales of buildings or other sources. The expenditures amounted to $2,696,207.24. The value of school property is given at $7,500,000.

Lyle Wins Marathon.

A Higher Labor Court.

The annulment of the strike order issued by District President Francis Feehan against the Pittsburgh Coal Company by National President T. L. Lewis shows that a court of higher appeal is just as essential in labor disputes as in law cases of equity. While District President Feehan no doubt was sincere in the belief that he had exhausted all possible means of a settlement, and that the strike was the last resort, the National President's action indicates that a strike may yet be averted.

In all cases of labor dispute more or less feeling is aroused and relations become strained between the two parties directly involved, so that neither side will concede a point. By appealing to a higher authority, which has not become biased by reason of personal feeling, in most cases a speedy adjustment is effected. With no discredit to President Feehan, who no doubt did all in his power to effect a settlement, it is fortunate for the Pittsburgh district that a higher authority was able to step in and reopen negotiations. The chances are that a speedy settlement of the differences will follow.

An Object Lesson.

Some idea of the magnitude of the school system of Pennsylvania may be gained by the news statement published elsewhere of the receipts and expenditures of the Pittsburgh district of the past year. In this one district 56,651 pupils are enrolled and the expenditures of the district for education last year was $2,696,207, nearly half of the entire State appropriation for one year. The receipts of the district were $4,098,867, and value of school property held in the district is placed at $7,500,000. The State appropriation received was $268,720.82.

By these figures it will be seen that the State appropriation of $5,500,000 a year for school purpose, is but a drop in the bucket compared with what is collected by local taxation for the maintenance of our public schools. This should be an object lesson for those districts that nominally maintain their schools on the State appropriation. If this policy were carried out over all the State the schools would soon drop to the lowest possible ebb.

A Popular Move.

Next to the Palace Theatre's outdoor orchestral concerts and the public playgrounds, the most popular public institution in Charleroi is perhaps the church baseball league. This league is composed of six teams representing the various churches of the town, and a regular schedule for three games a week has been arranged. While the spirit of rivalry is intense, the game are kept perfectly clean, and no undue advantage is permitted. As a result, some of the best amateur games ever played in the town are witnessed.

The pleasing feature about the games is the large attendance. The games start at six o'clock in the evenings and no admission is charged. People flock to the games, particularly women and children, and the enthusiasm is intense. A contribution box placed at the gate shows that the sport is appreciated, as enough is dropped in to defray current expense, which is all that is desired. It should be continued throughout the entire season.

The way some American newspaper writers using language around pretty nearly entitles the average native of this country to think that this land has any other beaten to a frazzle.

If the water company and the borough get things settled within the next few days and the company would really do what we think is merely just, wouldn't every one be surprised, tho'?

At least the London newspapers can have a new story every day of more than usual interest in the moves of the suffragists. Bet the editors never go out of their offices though, through fear of being mobbed.

Monessen people have not recovered yet from their attempted Marathon, and are still apologizing. The latest is to ask help from Charleroi. They, the proud.

The Grafton Republican in a sort of cross fire effusion in stating that the directors of the defunct Clarksburg baseball team have secured an injunction to prevent the Pa. W. Va. league circuit from collecting the $500 forfeit, suggests that they might go a step farther and restrain the league from continuing. From present indications an injunction or anything else will not be needed to keep it from continuing—it will go up anyhow.

Certain About It.

Once upon a time, not so long ago, a couple of cowpunchers found themselves guests in the home of a minister of the gospel whose custom was to hold family worship of a morning and to conclude the same by asking each one present to give some quotation from the Scriptures. One after another repeated some text until at last it came the turn of Jim Bulstoke of the Crowfoot ranch.

"My dear young friend," said the dominie as he saw the latter hesitating, "surely can recall some verse from the Bible?"
Jim's face was bathed with profuse perspiration, but at last there came to him some approximation of a memory of something he had read or heard at some stage of his life about the first chapter of Genesis. At last he broke out, "God made the world."

The dominie lifted a hand to hide a sudden smile, but bowed to Jim's neighbor in the circle. Curley was even worse off than Jim had been and for the life of him could not think of anything. At last, remembering the occasional virtue of a good bluff, he twisted one foot around his chair leg and, with all the confidence he could muster, remarked, "He shore did!"—Recreation.

Last English King in a Battle.

The battle of Dettlingen, in Bavaria, on the 16th (27th O. S.) of June, 1743, between the British, Hanoverian and Hessian troops (52,000 men), under command of George II., and the French troops (60,000 men), under Marshal Noailles, which resulted in the victory of the allied troops, was the last occasion on which an English king fought on the battlefield. His majesty continued the whole time in the heat of all the action, which was said by those who witnessed it to have been as fierce a conflict as had ever been known.

On the morning of the battle the king appeared in the same red coat he had worn at Oudenarde, thirty-five years before, taking his place at the head of the seven battalions of guards. About noon he ordered a general advance, and during the movements it entailed he was very nearly taken by the enemy, but was rescued by the Twenty-second regiment, who, in remembrance, wore a sprig of oak in their caps upon the anniversary of the battle for many years afterward.—London Tit-Bits.

GOOD MANNERS AT HOME.

Not long ago I visited a home where such exceptionally good breeding prevailed and such fine manners were practiced by all the members of the family that it made a great impression upon me; writes Orion Swett Marden in Success Magazine. This home is the most remarkable school of good manners, refinement and culture generally I have ever been in. The parents are bringing up their children to practice their best manners on all occasions. They do not know what company manners mean.

The boys have been taught to treat their sisters with as much deference as though they were stranger guests. The politeness, courtesy and consideration which the members of this family show toward one another are most refreshing and beautiful. Coarseness, gruffness, lack of delicacy find no place there. Both boys and girls have been trained from infancy to make themselves interesting, and to entertain and try to make others happy. The entire family make it a rule to dress before dinner in the evening, just as they would if special company were expected.

Their table manners are especially marked. At table every one is supposed to be at his best, not to bring any grudge, or a long or sad face to it, but to contribute his best thought, his wittiest saying, to the conversation. Every member of the family is expected to do his best to make the meal a really happy occasion. There is a sort of rivalry to see who can be the most entertaining or contribute the spiciest bits of conversation. There is no indication of dyspepsia in this family, because every one is trained to laugh and be happy, and laughter is a fatal enemy of indigestion.

The etiquette of the table is also strictly observed. Every member of the family tries to do just the proper thing and always to be mindful of others' rights. Kindness seems to be practised for the joy of it, not for the sake of creating a good impression on friends or acquaintances. There is in this home an air of peculiar refinement which is very charming. The children are early taught to greet callers and guests cordially, heartily, in real Southern, hospitable fashion, and to make them feel that they are very welcome. They are taught to make every one feel comfortable and at home, so that there will be no sense of restraint.

The Children of the Great.

There is a tendency for children of exceptional parents to regress toward the average stock. Galton terms this tendency filial regression. This, the London hospital points out, applies equally to exceptional physical and mental characters. Thus, though tall stature may run in certain families, yet there is always a tendency to revert to the mean average size. Similarly the children of a genius tend to have somewhat less than their father's power, but more than the average of the race. According to Professor Pearson, distinguished parents are just ten times more likely to have distinguished offspring than undistinguished parents. Still, such cases as the Darwins, father and sons; the two Pitts, Philip and Alexander the Great are exceptional. Similarly also the children of a criminal tend to be less vicious than the father, though morally inferior to the average man.

Widows' Caps.

The widow's cap is a survival of an old Roman custom. Widows were obliged to wear their weeds for ten months, and the bereaved woman shaved her head as a token of mourning. Naturally the widow could not very well appear in public with a bald head, so dainty caps were made in order to hide the disfigurement. The cap still remains, though the immediate necessity for its existence has long passed away.—Pearson's Weekly.

CUEAT GOOD BEING DONE

Many People Praising Root Juice.

When the Root Juice Demonstrations were started at this point the names of many people who were cured by the great remedy were published in the local papers. The wonderful medicine has been here but a short while, but many home people who have been using it are praising it very highly. We have published in this paper the names of many who have been cured by it, and it seems that it would pay every afflicted person to investigate as no medicine was ever introduced to this community that created so much favorable comment and did so much good in such a short while. Many that suffered with chronic stomach, liver, kidney and rheumatic troubles are blessing the day that brought Root Juice to this point. Out of the scores of people that have purchased the remedy, not a single complaint has been made but many are calling at Piper Bros' drug store to get more of the medicine and report the great good it is doing.

LARGE MILLION DOLLAR PLANT MAY BE ERECTED BY WEST PENN AT SPEERS

Location Said to be on Property of Company at That Place.

TO START ERECTION SOON

It has been authentically rumored that the large million-dollar generating plant which the West Penn Electric company proposed to build in the Monongahela valley during the coming year, will be placed at Speers, where the company holds some ground. The only plants of the company are now at Connellsville, and these were found not large enough for all purposes, so it was planned to erect a new one, and place it in the valley. The West Penn company furnishes the lighting for many of the towns of Western Pennsylvania, besides the power for some of the trolley lines.

Announcement was made during last fall of the company's intention to erect a large plant, to be the largest and most expensive of any owned. It was given out that this was to be placed somewhere in the valley, and the towns immediately began fighting for preference. The matter was almost forgotten, but now it seems that the company has been preparing to establish the plant at Speers.

Monongahela and Monessen were both after it strong, and Elizabeth was fighting to secure the location of the plant there. Charleroi was seemingly the most suitable. The people of Speers made no effort whatever for the preference, although it was a well known fact that the company had ground at that place, where there was a former plant.

If the rumor is true it is probable that the location of the power house will be decided in the next few months. When put in operation it will prove a valuable industry, and a number of men will be employed in it, all of them skilled mechanics. The location at Speers would be a boom not only for that borough, but also for Charleroi.

Queen Contest

The threatening rain will in no way interfere with the Block carnival this evening. Last night a large crowd enjoyed themselves on Washington avenue among other things listening to the band concert. The special attraction tonight is the lady show. If it should rain, all the attractions of the carnival will hold forth in the Sunday school rooms of Christ Lutheran church, which is especially adapted for just such an occasion. There is one new contestant for the queen of the carnival today. The following is the vote as taken at noon:

Miss Merry Myford.....	331
Miss Rosa Vetter.....	106
Miss Myrtle Dunmire.....	190
Miss Lenora Mikh.....	95
Miss Jennie MacNicol.....	25
Miss Agnes Allen.....	20
Miss Evelyn Hays.....	58

Eagles Hold Banquet

Monongahela Aerie, No. 532, Fraternal Order of Eagles had the honor of entertaining the first grand officer of the order when Deputy Grand Worthy President W. H. Schrah paid the aerie a fraternal visit Wednesday night. After the regular session a banquet was given at the Hotel Main at which 52 were present.

The voting for the Queen of the Carnival which begins tonight on Washington avenue at Sixth street reveals three new aspirants. The following is the vote as taken at noon today:

J. K. Tener, Pres. S. A. Walton, Vice Pres. R. H. Roach, Cashier.

MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION IN SPECIAL MEETING DECIDES TO ASSIST IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE THE CARRYING OUT OF PLANS FOR THE VALLEY FAIR

The Charleroi Merchants Association will co-operate with the Charleroi Athletic Association in holding a Valley Fair here during the second week of September. Action was taken to this effect at a meeting of the association held last night. John H. Bowers, president of the association, and W. C. Clark were appointed member of the executive committee to act with a similar one from the Athletic Association to make all arrangements for the affair, and see to carrying them out. The intentions of the Athletic Association for holding a valley fair was not understood by many of the merchants of the town, some of whom were strenuously opposing the idea. The meeting last night was called for the purpose of explanation, and for a vote on whether it would be favored or not. The merchants decided to assist in any way possible. The plans for the fair are not for a carnival, but rather of the nature of an Old Home Week, such as was held at Monongahela last year. Charleroi is too young for an Old Home Week, and the Valley Fair will take its place.

DEMOCRATS REFUSE TO LET CONGRESSMAN TENER DO HEAVING

Won't Play If He Will Not Occupy Some Other Position.

The ball game between the Republicans and Democrats of the House will be played at Washington, D. C., this afternoon, with an admission fee, the proceeds to go to the children's playgrounds. John K. Tener of Charleroi, captain of the Republican team, will not pitch but play shortstop, the opposing team protesting against an ex-professional going into the box against them.

Longworth, Burke and Veerland have been appointed a committee to secure the attendance of President Taft, Secretary Knox and other high officials. Vice President Sherman is to umpire. Gaines of West Virginia and Burke of Pennsylvania constitute the battery for the Republicans.

CAMELITES BEST PRESBYTERIANS

The baseball bunch from the Campbellite meeting place won over the nine from the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church last evening in the church league game. The final score was 7 to 1.

The Christians played a good game behind McGowan, who twirled well. The Washington Avenues were able to score only in the fifth inning. Stroud hit out for a base. He proceeded to steal second, and came trotting home when McGowan threw over Vernon's head at first, on Hess' attempted single.

The Christians scored four in the first inning. Furnier got a walk, Cratty struck out, Jolliffe got a base and Morris hit for two, scoring both. Hess walked Vernon, and Van Voorhis was safe on an error of the second baseman. McGowan was safe on an error of the third baseman, this allowing Van Voorhis to score. In the third Jolliffe accepted a fielder's choice, and was safe. Morris struck out and Vernon hit for two bags, bringing Jolly in. Two more in the seventh brought the score up to the total. Allshouse singled, followed by Furnier who duplicated the performance. On an error of Kiefer's Cratty was safe and Allshouse scored. Furnier worked his way around when a throw was made to catch Cratty at second. The score:

PRESIDENT LEWIS INTERFERES AND CALLS OFF STRIKE

Miners of Pittsburg Coal Co. Will Not Quit Work as Anticipated

By declining to treat further with District President Francis Feehan of the Miners' union and demanding that National President T. L. Lewis take charge of peace negotiations, the Pittsburg Coal company succeeded in getting the strike order issued by President Feehan called off. The strike went into effect yesterday, and as a result 15,000 out of the 18,000 miners employed by the company were out. All returned to work today, however, pending a settlement.

The strike order issued by President Feehan was for alleged violations of the existing scale agreement on the part of the Pittsburg Coal company. The company did not have the sanction of the National Board, and President Lewis issued an order suspending the strike until further negotiations for a settlement. Consequently the men returned to work today. This conflict between the district president and the National president has caused some feeling among the former's friends. District President Feehan acquiesced in the order, but his board issues a set of resolutions, in which President Lewis was severely arraigned for interfering with the district order.

"THE MARRIAGE ALTAR" TO BE SERMON TOPIC

Rev. H. C. Boblitt, pastor of the First Christian church, will preach again at Eldora Park Sunday afternoon. The topic selected for the occasion is "The Marriage Altar." This will be the third sermon delivered by Rev. Boblitt at the park this season, and the series is attracting large audiences.

Special music will be rendered by a choir and orchestra. The services will begin at 3:30 p. m.

VALVE BREAKS AND AMMONIA LEAKS OUT

Considerable Damage Done at Ice Plant of George Moody.

A broken valve at the ice plant of J. W. Moody, on Crest avenue caused considerable damage yesterday afternoon. The damage was from the leakage of ammonia from the tank.

The valve broke at about 4 o'clock, with a noise like that of an explosion. Then the ammonia began to flow out. The man in charge of the plant at the time was unable to stop the flow from the pipes and it was necessary to send for an electrician to turn off the power. By the time the machinery had been brought to a standstill, all the liquid had leaked out.

It was impossible to remain within the vicinity of the ice plant for an hour, owing to the fumes arising from the ammonia, and three hours before any one could go near the ammonia tank.

Mr. Moody sent to Pittsburg for more ammonia, and at noon today had the plant in operation.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Claimed Railway Company Unlawfully Trespassed on Property.

B. B. Lytle, guardian of Harold Dill and Helen Dill, minors and Mrs. Sarah L. Dill Douglass entered an action at Washington against the Pittsburg and Charleroi Street Railway Co., to recover $2,000 for damages to property of the plaintiffs in the borough of Finleyville. In the statement of claim it is set forth that the plaintiffs are heirs of George W. Dill, who died November 5, 1898, in-estate, seized of a lot of ground in Finleyville, fronting 106 feet on Washington avenue and extending back 108 feet to Marion avenue.

Balloon Has Free Tickets.

In order to advertise the grand outing of the Knights of Malta to Cascade Park next Tuesday the local lodge has adopted a novel scheme. Tomorrow night at 8:30 several balloons will be sent up from the corner of Fifth street, to which free tickets will be attached. These can be used by the finders after the balloons descend. The excursion will be held over the P. and L. E. road, a special train leaving early Tuesday morning for Cascade Park, near New Castle. The fare for the round trip from Belle Vernon and nearby stations is $1.05 for adults and 50 cents for children. 2862tp

Officials Leave, but Will Tender Their Report In Near Future.

SETTLEMENT OF STRIKE

The test which National officials of the miners' union have been making at the Charleroi Coal Works was finished up yesterday and all who have been here to assist in the test left. The test was for the purpose of ascertaining the difference in cost between the use of black powder and carbonite. During the month there were different National officials here, but Messrs. McKay and Roswell were the last to leave. Samuel Hagy of the Dupont Powder company was also here for 26 days assisting in the test.

It was decided some time ago that black powder will not be used in the Charleroi Coal mines as an explosive. This was following a strike of the miners employed at this place over the use of other explosives than black powder. Carbonite, which it was proposed to use, is more costly and harder to handle and the miners wanted to be reimbursed for extra expense. This was the case of the strike.

At the settlement of the affair the mine superintendent, Jesse K. Johnson, agreed to allow a test to be made towards establishing the difference in price of the two explosives, to be governed in his future action by the report.

The report will be made at once, but the result will probably not be known to the public until some time to come.

BIG EXPENDITURES

Pittsburg Schools Cost District $2,696,207 for Maintenance.

There are 1,388 schools in the Pittsburg school district, employing 89 male and 1,299 female teachers. The average salary of the male teachers is $200 a month and of the female teachers $85 a month.

The schools enroll 56,651 pupils, 28,443 of whom are boys and 28,208 girls, with an average daily attendance of 44,932, a percentage of 79. The cost of each pupil per month is $2.68. The total amount of money levied for the year was $2,118,941.66.

The financial statement shows receipts of $4,098,867.50 of which $268,720.82 was from State appropriation, $1,157,649.66 balance from last year, $2,118,941.86 from school tax, $420,454.74 from loans and $133,070.40 from sales of buildings or other sources. The expenditures amounted to $2,696,207.24. The value of school property is given at $7,500,000.

Lyle Wins Marathon.

Matthew Lyle of California won the Marathon race of the Monongahela Republican from Monongahela to Eldora Park yesterday afternoon. His time was 173-4 minutes. Thomas Managan, the Charleroi boy in the race, owing to a bad ankle, was able to secure but ninth place.

Snug Church Eund

The North Ten Mile Baptist congregation of Amwell township has decided to sell the 21 acres of coal underlying the church property. The Pittsburg-Buffalo company has offered $225 an acre, which probably will be accepted.

A Higher Labor Court.

The annulment of the strike order issued by District President Francis Feehan against the Pittsburgh Coal Company by National President T. L. Lewis shows that a court of higher appeal is just as essential in labor disputes as in law cases of equity. While District President Feehan no doubt was sincere in the belief that he had exhausted all possible means of a settlement, and that the strike was the last resort, the National President's action indicates that a strike may yet be averted.

In all cases of labor dispute more or less feeling is aroused and relations become strained between the two parties directly involved, so that neither side will concede a point. By appealing to a higher authority, which has not become biased by reason of personal feeling, in most cases a speedy adjustment is effected. With no discredit to President Feehan, who no doubt did all in his power to effect a settlement, it is fortunate for the Pittsburgh district that a higher authority was able to step in and reopen negotiations. The chances are that a speedy settlement of the differences will follow.

An Object Lesson.

Some idea of the magnitude of the school system of Pennsylvania may be gained by the news statement published elsewhere of the receipts and expenditures of the Pittsburgh district of the past year. In this one district 56,651 pupils are enrolled and the expenditures of the district for education last year was $2,696,207, nearly half of the entire State appropriation for one year. The receipts of the district were $1,098,367, and value of school property held in the district is placed at $7,500,000. The State appropriation received was $268,720.32.

By these figures it will be seen that the State appropriation of $5,500,000 a year for school purpose, is but a drop in the bucket compared with what is collected by local taxation for the maintenance of our public schools. This should be an object lesson for those districts that nominally maintain their schools on the State appropriation. If this policy were carried out over all the State the schools would soon drop to the lowest possible ebb.

A Popular Move.

Next to the Palace Theatre's outdoor orchestral concerts and the public playgrounds, the most popular public institution in Charleroi is perhaps the baseball team. The team is composed of six teams representing the various churches of the town, and a regular schedule for three games a week has been arranged. While the spirit of rivalry is intense, the game is kept perfectly clean, and no undue advantage is permitted. As a result some of the best amateur games ever played in the town are witnessed.

The pleasing feature about the games is the large attendance. The games start at six o'clock in the evening and no admission is charged. People flock to the games, particularly women and children, and the enthusiasm is intense. A contribution box placed at the gate shows that the sport is appreciated, as enough is dropped in to defray current expense, which is all that is desired. It should be continued throughout the entire season.

People worry too much—John D. Rockefeller.

It's a waste of mental tissue
When we fuss and fume and fret;
Worry never got a body
Anything but worry yet.
For John D. to be so foolish
There is not the least excuse,
And as for us lesser mortals—
On the level, what's the use?
—Arthur Roche, in New York World.

The way some American newspaper writers using language around pretty nearly entitles the average native of this country to think that this land has any other beaten to a frazzle.

If the water company and the borough get things settled within the next few days and the company would really do what we think is merely just, wouldn't every one be surprised, tho'?

At least the London newspapers can have a new story every day of more than usual interest in the moves of the suffragists. But the editors never go out of their offices though, through fear of being mobbed.

Monessen people have not recovered yet from their attempted Marathon, and are still apologizing. The latest is to ask help from Charleroi. They, the proud.

The Grafton Republican in a sort of cross fire effusion in stating that the directors of the defunct Clarksburg baseball team have secured an injunction to prevent the Pa. W. Va. league circuit from collecting the $500 forfeit, suggests that they might go a step farther and restrain the league from continuing. From present indications an injunction or anything else will not be needed to keep it from continuing—it will go up anyhow.

Certain About It.

Once upon a time, not so long ago, a couple of cowpunchers found themselves guests in the home of a minister of the gospel whose custom was to hold family worship of a morning and to conclude the same by asking each one present to give some quotation from the Scriptures. One after another repeated some text until at last it came the turn of Jim Bulstoke of the Crowfoot ranch.

"My dear young friend," said the domineer as he saw the latter hesitating, "surely can recall some verse from the Bible?"

Jim's face was bathed with profuse perspiration, but at last there came to him some approximation of a memory of something he had read or heard at some stage of his life about the first chapter of Genesis. At last he broke out, "God made the world."

The domineer lifted a hand to hide a sudden smile, but bowed to Jim's neighbor in the circle. Curley was even worse off than Jim had been and for the life of him could not think of anything. At last, remembering the occasional virtue of a good bluff, he twisted one foot around his chair leg and, with all the confidence he could muster, remarked, "He shore did!"

Last English King in a Battle.

The battle of Dettingen, in Bavaria, on the 16th (27th O. S.) of June, 1743, between the British, Hanoverian and Hessian troops (52,000 men), under command of George II., and the French troops (60,000 men), under Marshal Noailles, which resulted in the victory of the allied troops, was the last occasion on which an English king fought on the battlefield. His majesty continued the whole time in the heat of all the action, which was said by those who witnessed it to have been as fierce a conflict as had ever been known.

On the morning of the battle the king appeared in the same red coat he had worn at Oudenarde, thirty-five years before, taking his place at the head of the seven battalions of guards. About noon he ordered a general advance, and during the movements he entailed he was very nearly taken by the enemy, but was rescued by the Twenty-second regiment, who, in remembrance, wore a sprig of oak in their caps upon the anniversary of the battle for many years afterward.—London Tit-Bits.

GOOD MANNERS AT HOME

Not long ago I visited a home where such exceptionally good breeding prevailed and such fine manners were practiced by all the members of the family that it made a great impression upon me, writes Orison Sweet Marden in Success Magazine. This home is the most remarkable school of good manners, refinement and culture generally I have ever been in. The parents are bringing up their children to practice their best manners on all occasions. They do not know what company manners mean.

The boys have been taught to treat their sisters with as much deference as though they were stranger guests. The politeness, courtesy and consideration which the members of this family show toward one another are most refreshing and beautiful. Coarseness, gruffness, lack of delicacy find no place there. Both boys and girls have been trained from infancy to make themselves interesting and to entertain and try to make others happy. The entire family make it a evening, just as they would if special company were expected.

Their table manners are especially marked. At table every one is supposed to be at his best, not to bring any grudge, or a long or sad face to it, but to contribute his best thought, his wittiest saying, to the conversation. Every member of the family is expected to do his best to make the meal a really happy occasion. There is a sort of rivalry to see who can be the most entertaining or contribute the spiciest bits of conversation. There is no indication of dyspepsia in this family, because every one is trained to laugh and be happy, and laughter is a fatal enemy of indigestion.

The etiquette of the table is also strictly observed. Every member of the family tries to do just the proper thing and always to be mindful of others' rights. Kindness seems to be practised for the joy of it, not for the sake of creating a good impression on friends or acquaintances. There is in this home an air of peculiar refinement which is very charming. The children are early taught to greet callers and guests cordially, heartily, in real Southern, hospitable fashion, and to make them feel that they are very welcome. They are taught to make every one feel comfortable and at home, so that there will be no sense of restraint.

The Children of the Great.

There is a tendency for children of exceptional parents to regress toward the average stock. Galton terms this tendency filial regression. This, the London hospital points out, applies equally to exceptional physical and mental characters. Thus, though tall stature may run in certain families, yet there is always a tendency to revert to the mean average size. Similarly the children of a genius tend to have somewhat less than their father's power, but more than the average of the race. According to Professor Pearson, distinguished parents are just ten times more likely to have distinguished offspring than undistinguished parents. Still, such cases as the Darwins, father and sons; the two Pitts, Philip and Alexander the Great are exceptional. Similarly also the children of a criminal tend to be less vicious than the father, though morally inferior to the average man.

Widows' Caps.

The widow's cap is a survival of an old Roman custom. Widows were obliged to wear their weeds for ten months, and the bereaved woman shaved her head as a token of mourning. Naturally the widow could not very well appear in public with a bald head, so dainty caps were made in order to hide the disfigurement. The cap still renounces, though the immediate necessity for its existence has long passed away.—Pearson's Weekly.

CURE GOOD BEING DONE

Many People Praising Root Juice.

When the Root Juice Demonstrations were started at this point the names of many people who were cured by the great remedy were published in the local papers. The wonderful medicine has been here but a short while, but many home people who have been using it are praising it very highly. We have published in this paper the names of many who have been cured by it, and it seems that it would pay every afflicted person to investigate as no medicine was ever introduced to this community that created so much favorable comment and did so much good in such a short while. Many that suffered with chronic stomach, liver, kidney and rheumatic troubles are blessing the day that brought Root Juice to this point. Out of the scores of people that have purchased the remedy, not a single complaint has been made but many are calling at Piper Bros' drug store to get more of the medicine and report the great good it is doing.

The Eternal Motorist.
Mrs. Gossip—They do say that her husband has acquired locomotor ataxia.
Mrs. Parvenu—I don't think much of those cheap curs. My husband has an imported one.—Smart Set.

Household Hint.
To mark table linen—leave the baby and some jam alone at the table for five minutes.—Judge.

A Simple Reason.
Scientific Parent (on a stroll)—You see out there in the street, my son, a simple illustration of a principle in mechanics. The man with that cart pushes it in front of him. Can you guess the reason why? Probably not. I will ask him. Note his answer, my son. (To the coster) My good man, why do you push that cart instead of pulling it?
Coster—'Cause I ain't a boss, yer old thickhead.—London Evening
